RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Fund's net assets decreased by $33.4 million to $982.6 million from March 31, 2020 to September 30, 2020. The Fund had net redemptions of $159.8 million during the period. The portfolio's performance increased assets by $141.9 million. The Fund paid distributions totalling $15.5 million. Series A units returned 13.6% after fees and expenses for the six-month period ended September 30, 2020. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmarks returned 22.2% and 22.0%, respectively. The benchmarks are the MSCI World Total Return Index (the New Benchmark) and the MSCI ACWI Total Return Index (the Old Benchmark). During the period we changed the reference index of the Fund. We believe that the New Benchmark better reflects the nature of the Fund.

The performance of the Fund's other Series is substantially similar to that of Series A units, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other Series, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

While COVID-19's global spread does not fall under the conventional definition of a "macroeconomic" event, it nonetheless was the greatest such event since the Great Depression. In a matter of weeks, unemployment went from record lows of 3.5% to 14.7%. This led us to conduct thorough reviews of our portfolio holdings to ensure we had a margin of safety in light of these events. In most cases we saw only a temporary impact to fundamentals, while in a handful of companies their fundamentals improved, especially our holdings oriented to the digital economy. There were also two examples of businesses in the travel industry that were directly affected by COVID-19, where we saw an ongoing impact. We adjusted our position size in the case of one and exited the position altogether for the other.

The Fund underperformed the benchmarks for the period. The Fund's holdings in the consumer staples and information technology sectors detracted from performance. Individual holdings that detracted from performance included Melrose Industries PLC, Imperial Brands PLC and Wells Fargo & Co. Melrose operates as an investment company, acquiring and holding securities of underperforming businesses, primarily in the manufacturing sector. The company owns businesses in the auto and aerospace industries, which were both areas negatively impacted by the pandemic. This has affected their near-term prospects, although the company has shown the ability to create significant shareholder value through improved operations over longer-term periods. Tobacco producer Imperial Brands underperformed the strong rally in the quarter but announced only a mid-single digit impact from COVID-19. We believe the company offers good value at around five times our 2021 earnings estimates. A new CEO with a strong history of value creation could be a positive catalyst for the share price in the coming quarters. Wells Fargo is a diversified financial services company providing a wide range of services to its largely U.S. customer base. The company has not participated in the market recovery, challenged by expectations for weaker loan growth and a flat yield curve. The company should re-rate higher if a lasting recovery takes hold.

The Fund's holdings in the energy and materials sectors contributed to performance. The largest individual contributors to performance included Brenntag AG, Broadcom Inc. and DuPont de Nemours Inc. Brenntag sells and distributes industrial and specialty chemicals. The company's customers include oil and gas, paint, cosmetic, pharmaceutical and water treatment companies. It performed well during the period as it rebounded to new 2020 highs. This is a quality business with a diversified customer base that is well positioned to withstand a weaker economic backdrop. Broadcom designs, develops and markets digital and analog semiconductors and markets its products worldwide. The company reported strong results and issued guidance that reflected a surge in demand from cloud, telecom and enterprise customers, offset by some supply chain constraints. The company generates strong free cash flow and offers a healthy balance sheet to help it navigate the environment. DuPont operates as a global chemical company. Over the period, the firm benefited from cost and productivity actions, while continuing to make investments in innovation and new product developments.

Over the period, the Fund initiated positions in Baxter International Inc. and CMS Energy Corp., and eliminated a position in Athene Holding Ltd.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

We continue to find opportunities in businesses with strong fundamentals benefiting from shifts in consumer behaviour as the budgets of consumers move away from travel to improving their homes. We believe there are opportunities available today across the market from new beneficiaries of this trend to highly profitable businesses seeing a temporary slowdown in growth. While this type of operating environment requires greater agility and flexibility on the application of our process, the underlying process remains consistent. We continue to own a portfolio of quality business that have favourable future prospects which we believe will result in strong risk-adjusted returns for our investors.

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's semi-annual and annual financial statements.

(2) Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the period, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on unitholder residency and can be different from 13%.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period, including the Fund's proportionate share of such expenses of any underlying fund(s), if applicable.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal period. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the period, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the period.

(5) This information is provided for the period ended September 30, 2020 and the years ended March 31.
