INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGIES

The objective of the Marret Short Duration High Yield Fund (the Fund) is to generate income by primarily investing in a diversified portfolio of high-yield corporate bonds that are expected to have durations of one to five years and other income-producing securities throughout the world.

The Fund will be widely diversified by industry while striving to maintain a high degree of liquidity by investing primarily in securities which are widely traded by multiple dealers. These securities include high yield corporate bonds with maturities under five years and those trading to call dates under three years, senior floating rate loans and other short maturity convertible or preferred securities.

The portfolio advisor uses a combination of top-down macroeconomic analysis involving the assessment of economic, political and market trends, and to generate cash to meet its debt obligations. The portfolio advisor focuses on a company's industry position, operating leverage, management strength and experience, historical earnings and future projections, liquidity profile and accounting ratios and practices.

RISK

No changes affecting the overall level of risk associated with investing in the Fund were made during the year. The risks of the Fund remain as discussed in the Fund's most recently filed simplified prospectus or its amendments. The Manager reviews the risk rating for the Fund on an annual basis, at a minimum, based on the methodology mandated by the Canadian Securities Administrators to determine the risk level of the Fund. Any change to the risk rating made during the year was as a result of such review and was not a result of any change to the investment objective, strategies or management of the Fund.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The net asset value of the Fund decreased by $56.3 million to $6.7 million from March 31, 2018 to March 31, 2019. The Fund had net redemptions of $55.0 million during the year. The portfolio's performance increased assets by $1.8 million. The Fund paid distributions totalling $3.1 million. Class A units returned 2.8% after fees and expenses for the one-year period ended March 31, 2019. Over the same time period, the Fund's benchmark returned 8.0%. The benchmark is the ICE BofAML 1-5 Year BB Cash Pay High Yield Total Return Index.

The performance of the Fund's other classes is substantially similar to that of Class A units, except for differences in the structure of fees and expenses. For the returns of the Fund's other classes, please refer to the "Past Performance" section.

After an aggressive sell-off in equity and risk at the end of 2018 (most notably in December), markets rallied sharply through the first quarter of 2019. While trade negotiations between the U.S. and China are yet to be resolved and have injected an element of uncertainty in global growth forecasts through 2018, the continued (and increasing) dovish stance of the U.S. Federal Reserve (Fed) has supported the move higher in both equity and credit markets. Given this "risk-on" tone, volatility decreased significantly in Q1 2019 from the highs seen in Q4 2018 but remains subject to the ongoing development of geopolitical events – particularly U.S. trade policies. The Fed's dovish comments further drove markets late in the year and especially in Q1 2019. While a dovish stance was expected, the extent of the changes surprised both us and the markets – particularly with regard to the balance sheet actions. This resulted in lower U.S. Treasury yields and further inversion in the front end of the curve. High yield spreads widened by 25 basis points year over year, with the yield on the broader market rising to approximately 6.39%. We continue to believe that short duration credit offers an attractive risk/reward opportunity in more volatile credit and rate markets.

The Fund's core short duration bonds performed well over the year. The downward move and flattening (then inversion) in the U.S. Treasury yield curve affected the valuation of short-dated corporate credits while volatility increased through the year, marked by a significant spike in December before retracing lower in Q1 2019. The Fund benefited from short duration credit selection (Endo International PLC, Reynolds, JBS S.A., Tapstone Energy LLC, notably) but the Fund's performance was also supported by the market appetite for health care (Bausch Health Cos Inc., Tenet Healthcare Corp., Teva Pharmaceuticals, notably). In commodities, Tapstone Energy Inc., Lundin Mining Corp. and Fortescue Metals Group Ltd. were notable contributors. Conversely, exposure to certain telecommunication, energy and chemical names detracted from the Fund's performance.

Of the positions initiated or increased through the year, the largest were: JBS USA Holdings Inc., Endo International PLC, HCA Inc., MGM Resorts International and Sprint Corp. Given the Fund's investment strategy (short duration credit), the rotation out of credits being called or tendered is to be expected on a regular basis. With that, the Fund's exposure was shifted tactically out of short duration credits that saw significant outperformance or were called/tendered and into credits that we believe present more attractive valuation. Consequently, the following notable positions were reduced or closed through the year: Sprint, T-Mobile, Gaming & Leisure Properties Inc., Cequel Communications LLC and HCA.

Our inclination, as before, is to conservatively shift the Fund's exposure to sectors and credits that present favourable valuation without adding undue risk and/or duration to the portfolio.

The Fund underperformed the benchmark for the year.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Looking forward, the U.S. economy has shown some signs of softening while the global economy continues to remain fragile. Central banks have acknowledged this weak environment and have responded accordingly, providing a far more accommodative policy

Marret Short Duration High Yield Fund

stance. Global bond yields have once again fallen dramatically, with a reasonably large subset of government bonds now providing negative yields once more. This has led to a resumption of yield seeking behavior, creating a snap back in both investment-grade and high-yield bond security prices. The credit rally, however, has been driven by higher quality securities, leaving these valuations extended, which keeps us cautious given valuation. The U.S. government yield curve has also inverted in the front end, which has historically inferred a continuation of weakening growth trends to come. As a result, we continue to remain conservatively positioned. We are, however, keeping a close eye on whether global growth begins to stabilize, and whether the effects of the previous Fed policy tightening leads to weakening in the U.S. economy.

New Accounting Standard – IFRS 9

Effective April 1, 2018, the Fund retrospectively without restatement adopted IFRS 9, Financial Instruments (IFRS 9). The new standard requires financial assets to be either carried at amortized cost or at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in profit and loss (FVTPL) or in other comprehensive income (FVOCI) based on the Fund's business model for managing financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets. Upon transition to IFRS 9, the Fund's financial assets and financial liabilities previously designated as FVTPL or classified as held for trading under IAS 39, Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement (IAS 39) continue to be classified as FVTPL under IFRS 9. There were no changes in the measurement attributes for any of the Fund's financial assets and financial liabilities upon transition to IFRS 9.

Effective September 20, 2018, Tom Eisenhauer became a member of the Independent Review Committee (IRC) and effective October 15, 2018, Mary Robertson resigned as a member of the IRC.

(1) This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements.

(2) Management expense ratio is calculated based on expenses charged to the Fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets for the year, including the Fund's proportionate share of any underlying fund(s) expenses, if applicable. The Effective HST tax rate is calculated using the attribution percentage for each province based on unitholder residency and can be different from 13%.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the year, including the Fund's proportionate share of such expenses of any underlying fund(s), if applicable.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the fiscal year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a higher turnover rate and the performance of a Fund. Portfolio turnover rate is calculated by dividing the lesser of the cost of purchases and the proceeds of sales of portfolio securities for the year, and excluding cash and short-term investments maturing in less than one year, and before assets acquired from a merger, if applicable, by the average of the monthly fair value of investments during the year.

(5) This information is provided for the years ended March 31.
